

MONDAY

Latin America

Ask God to give Christians in Latin America opportunities to give clear witness of the gospel as many participate in Catholic rituals during the Easter season.

Pray for the students in the Bible Seminary in Chame who began classes March 15. Pray for Steve and Judy Lytle, Panamanian pastors, and others as they train students for ministry.

Pray for health, wisdom, and evangelistic opportunities for Molly Barker, Jaimie and Tammy Lancaster, and newcomers David and Kendra Dodson as they minister in Uruguay. Pray for Neil and Mandi Morgan as they travel to raise money to serve in Uruguay.

Pray for the Cedars of Lebanon Free Will Baptist Seminary in Cuba. Pray for the professors as they prepare students for leadership roles in our churches. Pray the Lord will keep our current leaders strong as they work in this closed country.

Pray for Pastor Jeancarlo Aché in Jaboticabal, Brazil, as he leads his church to reach beyond their borders. Members of the church are working on the border with Uruguay to strengthen churches in the Rivera area.

TUESDAY

Europe

The Alpedrete FWB Church is the first and only evangelical church in the town's 500-year history. Pray the many children and youth in the church would ask God to live in their hearts and guide their steps. Ask God to raise up leaders from the congregation.

Praise God for the many good things happening in France. Two new church plants are underway in Châteaubriant and St. Herblain/Couëron. Pray God will continue to bless these works, and people's hearts will be softened to accept the Word.

Ask God to bless the ministry of the bookstore in Nantes, the only Christian bookstore in a city of over 600,000 residents. Pray for Patsy Vanhook as she runs the store, looks for opportunities to share Bibles and other literature in bookfairs, and witnesses to curious shoppers.

Praise God for the completion of the building for the Villalba church. After 15 years, the church stands as the first evangelical church on that side of Madrid. Pray many will attend the church out of curiosity and find Christ.

Ask God to give Tim and Lydia Awtrey creativity as they witness to atheistic Bulgarians. Pray for endurance and perseverance.

WEDNESDAY

Creative Access

Pray for continued progress as field workers join with national believers to accomplish their goals and objectives.

Workers in creative access areas need extra wisdom. Pray they will be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

Ask God to direct the hearts of government leaders so the gospel may have free course throughout their countries.

Pray for Free Will Baptist workers laboring in Laos, Morocco, Vietnam, Kazakhstan, & China.

Many believers in various creative access countries feel called to minister in a cross-cultural setting. Pray a sending agency will be established so those who are called can serve where most needed.

THURSDAY

Mission Leadership

Pray for General Director James Forlines as he leads the Mission. Ask God to keep him safe as he travels. Pray for wisdom as he makes decisions.

Pray for Jeff Turnbough, deputy director of field operations, as he seeks to provide oversight of overseas personnel and operations and to facilitate strategic initiatives around the world.

Pray for clarity of thought, understanding, and direction for Mark McPeak, the deputy director of stateside operations, as he leads the stateside team to support our work around the world. Pray for health, efficiency, creativity, and organizational skills for all stateside team personnel.

Pray for wisdom for the regional directors: Clint Morgan (Creative Access, Africa, and Russia), Tim Keener (Europe), Stan Bunch (Latin America), and Dale Bishop (India & Asia). Pray for discernment as they each seek new ministry opportunities, and assist field workers in directing strategies.

Pray for the IM board: Paul Creech, Nelson Henderson, Sherwood Lee, Jeff Manning, Tom McCullough, Rob Morgan, Jerry Norris, Danny Williams, and Randy Wilson. Ask God to give them good health, wisdom, and discernment as they convene for their annual meeting April 27-29.

Ask God to give endurance, safety, and guidance to Joe Wilson, Go10 Walk for the World project leader. Pray volunteers, day and regional coordinators, and walkers will be challenged to consider their roles in the Great Commission.

FRIDAY Asia, India, Africa

Pray for health, discernment, and holiness for leaders of our works in Asia, India, and Africa.

Six Japanese pastors minister in our FWB works in Japan. Pray for wisdom and strength for each of these men: Toshikazu Kawasaki, Kimura Keiichi, Takeshi Matsuda, Yoshikazu Ishii, Hirabuki Sadao, and Kiyoshi Kojima.

Pray the Community Health and Evangelism efforts will spread and be used of God to share the gospel in needy villages throughout Côte d'Ivoire.

Praise God for the spiritual leadership of godly Ivorian men and women as they minister and serve in their country and reach into Ghana and Senegal with the gospel.

Pray for wisdom, direction, and vision for Stanley Rajkumar as he capably heads the Volena Wilson Bible Institute in South India. Pray more Christians will sense a need for Bible training.

Pray for wisdom and guidance for Amiezi Paul and Housessou Robert as they direct the Bible institute in Bouna.

Pray for the three works in Tokyo, one led by Pastor Kojima and two church plants as joint projects of veteran missionaries (Ken and Judy Bailey and Don and Ruth McDonald) and Japanese Christians.

Pray for political stability in Côte d'Ivoire. Ask God to continue to give Christians confidence and peace in God. Pray daily needs and strength will be provided.

Ask God to bless Carlisle Hanna, the longest serving Free Will Baptist missionary, as he ministers in Sonapurhat, India. Pray for the many pastors, evangelists, and lay leaders with whom he labors. Ask God to protect, grant good health, and give fruit for the labor.

REACHING FARTHER
every  ne
TOGETHER

PreEaster Week of Prayer for World Missions
March 29-April 2, 2010

