

WNAC PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer and Mission: North America Offering FAQ sheet

What is WNAC? Women Nationally Active for Christ is an auxiliary arm of the National Association of Free Will Baptists.

We exist to help each woman fulfill the Great Commission through her God-designed roles in the home, church, community and world. Recognizing and respecting pastoral leadership, WNAC desires to assist local congregations in implementing and encouraging thriving Bible-based, outwardly focused women's groups and networking them together in order to accomplish greater Kingdom goals.

What is PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer? Women Nationally Active for Christ in partnership with Free Will Baptist Home Missions annually designates the Monday-Friday prior to Thanksgiving week as a special time of prayer for mission efforts in North America. Together, WNAC and FWBHM provide a complimentary resource packet containing a daily prayer guide and other materials for this intercessory effort.

How do we observe a PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer? Churches, groups or individuals can participate in various ways. Here are some suggestions:

- Distribute PreThanksgiving prayer guides and encourage families to daily pray together for these requests.
- Schedule an "Exercise in Prayer" or prayer walk event. (See enclosed sheet.)
- Arrange small group prayer meetings in homes, by locality or other designation.
- Create a prayer week sign-up sheet and encourage individuals or families to fill prayer time-slots.
- Join with other FWB churches in your area for a PreThanksgiving prayer service.
- Enlist phone prayer partners who will daily connect and pray together.
- Send email reminders of daily requests to everyone on your church's email list.
- Conduct a churchwide Concert of Prayer during a Sunday evening or midweek service, centered around the prayer guide requests.
- Plan a churchwide Thanksgiving dinner. Incorporate the week of prayer into this event through table decorations, prayer guides at each place setting, pictures of missionaries or activities such as a wordsearch containing missionary names or locations of mission churches.
- Sponsor a one-day women's event or overnight retreat (Saturday or Friday/Saturday) with a home missionary wife as speaker. Focus on prayer and thanksgiving.
- Adapt or create your own plan for observing PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer.

What if we don't have a Women Active for Christ group? WNAC and FWBHM encourage all churches to participate, regardless of church size, group dynamics or affiliation. The goal is praise and prayer for God's work and the salvation of souls here in our continent and ultimately, around the world.

Is PreThanksgiving Week of prayer connected to the Mission: North America offering? Yes. Since 1964, women have promoted and designated a special offering. Formerly called the Benjamin Randall and/or Lizze McAdams Offerings, the Mission: North America Offering helps provide needed funding for Home Missions operations. Churches typically receive this offering the last Sunday in November. All PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer gifts go toward this annual effort.

Other questions? Call toll-free 877-767-7662.

WNAC PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer and Mission: North America Offering FAQ sheet

What is WNAC? Women Nationally Active for Christ is an auxiliary arm of the National Association of Free Will Baptists.

We exist to help each woman fulfill the Great Commission through her God-designed roles in the home, church, community and world. Recognizing and respecting pastoral leadership, WNAC desires to assist local congregations in implementing and encouraging thriving Bible-based, outwardly focused women's groups and networking them together in order to accomplish greater Kingdom goals.

What is PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer? Women Nationally Active for Christ in partnership with Free Will Baptist Home Missions annually designates the Monday-Friday prior to Thanksgiving week as a special time of prayer for mission efforts in North America. Together, WNAC and FWBHM provide a complimentary resource packet containing a daily prayer guide and other materials for this intercessory effort.

How do we observe a PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer? Churches, groups or individuals can participate in various ways. Here are some suggestions:

- Distribute PreThanksgiving prayer guides and encourage families to daily pray together for these requests.
- Schedule an "Exercise in Prayer" or prayer walk event. (See enclosed sheet.)
- Arrange small group prayer meetings in homes, by locality or other designation.
- Create a prayer week sign-up sheet and encourage individuals or families to fill prayer time-slots.
- Join with other FWB churches in your area for a PreThanksgiving prayer service.
- Enlist phone prayer partners who will daily connect and pray together.
- Send email reminders of daily requests to everyone on your church's email list.
- Conduct a churchwide Concert of Prayer during a Sunday evening or midweek service, centered around the prayer guide requests.
- Plan a churchwide Thanksgiving dinner. Incorporate the week of prayer into this event through table decorations, prayer guides at each place setting, pictures of missionaries or activities such as a wordsearch containing missionary names or locations of mission churches.
- Sponsor a one-day women's event or overnight retreat (Saturday or Friday/Saturday) with a home missionary wife as speaker. Focus on prayer and thanksgiving.
- Adapt or create your own plan for observing PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer.

What if we don't have a Women Active for Christ group? WNAC and FWBHM encourage all churches to participate, regardless of church size, group dynamics or affiliation. The goal is praise and prayer for God's work and the salvation of souls here in our continent and ultimately, around the world.

Is PreThanksgiving Week of prayer connected to the Mission: North America offering? Yes. Since 1964, women have promoted and designated a special offering. Formerly called the Benjamin Randall and/or Lizze McAdams Offerings, the Mission: North America Offering helps provide needed funding for Home Missions operations. Churches typically receive this offering the last Sunday in November. All PreThanksgiving Week of Prayer gifts go toward this annual effort.

Other questions? Call toll-free 877-767-7662.