Falling in love? That's easy.

Staying in love? That's a challenge.

It's a challenge God calls us to fulfill as Christian husbands and wives.

How do you stay vibrant when life leaves you numb...

How do you hold a marriage together when your world is falling apart...

How do you make time for each other when financial or family pressures hold you in their squeeze...

How do you stay in love?

Speaker, veteran pastor and family enthusiast Joe Grizzle offers practical advice, proven tips and timeless principles from God's Word for a happy, staying-in-love kind of marriage. Brother Joe blends real life experience with relevant information. He and his wife Billie have been married for almost 50 years and have counseled countless couples in their many years of ministry life together.

Two weekend conferences in two locations provide couples flexibility and more affordable travel.

Staying in Love Chattanooga, Tennessee February 17-19, 2012

Treat your sweetheart to a post-Valentines Day weekend at the luxurious Doubletree Hotel in downtown Chattanooga, TN. Just up the street from the Tennessee Aquarium and other downtown attractions, this conference location offers plenty of perks.

Staying in Love Branson, Missouri March 23-25, 2012

Come to Branson in the spring. Enjoy the scenery, the shopping and the shows—without the crowds. The Grand Plaza Hotel (conference site) sits just up the hill from the Branson strip and offers easy access to all things Branson. The hotel boasts comfortable accommodations, free parking and a complimentary full breakfast buffet for all guests.

Own a timeshare? Live in the area? Because of Branson's popularity as a resort destination, two alternate conference packages are available. Couples staying off site may opt to attend the sessions and the banquet or just the sessions alone.

Both conference weekends feature the same speaker and follow the same format. Couples can enjoy time away together in guided learning, fellowship and fun. The schedule includes a free afternoon for sightseeing, shopping or sleeping and a Saturday night banquet. Both events conclude with Sunday morning worship.

GO AHEAD. Register now. Take this important step toward staying in love.
